

Nordic Embryo Technology Association (NETA) Annual meeting 2023: schedule 12th – 13th June

Venue: University of Helsinki, Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Department of Production Animal Medicine, Saari Unit, Leissantie 41, 04920 Saarentaus

Organising group: Juhani Taponen (juhani.taponen@helsinki.fi), Heli Lindeberg (heli.lindeberg@luke.fi), Jaana Peippo (jaana.peippo@nordgen.org), Mervi Mutikainen (mervi.mutikainen@luke.fi).

12 June 2023

10:00-12:00 Arrival, registration and accommodation

12:00 Lunch at Saari restaurant

13:00-15:00 The uphill battle of starting an equine OPU-ICSI program, Maria Kareskoski, Production Animal Medicine, Helsinki University, Finland

Overview about in vitro and in vivo-related embryo transfer technologies, and newest developments in OPU in sows, Stefan Björkman, Production Animal Medicine, Helsinki University, Finland

Oocyte collection, sperm preparation and embryo transfer in humans, Turkan Oztas, Production Animal Medicine, Helsinki University, Finland

- 15:00-16:00 Coffee break and guided tour through the clinic
- 16:00-17:30 Current status of embryo research and application in Finland, Sweden, Norway and Denmark.
- 18:00 Dinner at Hirvihaara manor (www.hirvihaarankartano.fi)

13 June 2023

- 9:00 Breakfast at Saari restaurant
- 10:00 Transport outside the restaurant leaves from Saari to Viking Genetics, Korpikyläntie 77, Hollola, Finland, 35 min
- 10:50 Visit at Viking Genetics, guided tour in OPU facilities.
- 12:45 Lunch sponsored by Viking Genetics
- 13:45 NETA annual meeting
- 14:00 Summary and conclusions + invitation to next year (Norway).
- 14:15 End of the WS. Transport to Mäntsälä railway station, 40 min

